MTH130 Module 0 Examination Justification Sheets

Student's Name: Haashir Nawaz

Student's RAM number: R 02016434

Instructions: Your written justification work will be done using pencil and these sheets as you are taking the examination while solving examination questions. After you have submitted your examination answers using the MTH130 WebAssign website you want to submit the hand-written justification work supporting these Examination answers. This is done by scanning your hand-written justification sheets into a single PDF-file. Then attach this file in the assignment-link, found in each Module, entitle Hand-in Written Justification for your answers to the Module 0 Examination, on the MTH130 BrightSpace website. Both submissions must be completed by the Module 0 Examination due date or 0 points will be assigned as your examination score.
